MANAGER MANAGEMENT COURSE

"A leader is best when people barely know they exist." - Lao Tzu

What is a manager management training course all about? Well, it's a great opportunity to look at management skills of the participants and how they fit with the organisational needs. This skills-based program supports confident decision-making and strategic oversight. Customised to suit your organisation's goals, this niche course etches out management leapfrog strategies. Sometimes managers are busy managing all levers and widgets in the organisation. But maybe they need to delegate the less important tasks and drill down into the critical needs of the organisation.

Key Course Content:

- Lead and support managers with clear direction
- Strengthen leadership alignment across teams
- Set expectations and hold leaders accountable
- Provide feedback that drives real performance
- Manage difficult conversations with confidence
- Build trust and credibility with your managers
- Coach managers to lead their own teams well
- Improve decision-making under pressure
- Navigate team dynamics and cross-team tension
- Translate strategy into practical team actions
